Friday 8th September

Lee Jones Trio

This exciting young jazz-rock guitarist/composer combines influences from modern jazz, fusion, blues and rock. Lee graduated from Birmingham Conservatoire's jazz course and is a winner of Jazz FM's Best New Instrumentalist award.

Friday 13th October

Dom Pipkin New Orleans

Pianist Dom is one of the UK's 'best kept secrets'. In a night full of jazz, blues and soul, Dom tells the story of 'Bad boys, bourbon, and the Big Easy', and the tragic and inspirational lives of characters such as Jelly Roll Morton and James Booker.

Friday 10th November

Kinda Dukish

The ever-popular Midlands big band plays original transcriptions of Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn's immortal music. Their repertoire ranges from the 1920's to the suites of the 60's and 70's and many classic melodies.

Friday 8th December

Paul Sawtell Trio

Paul is a highly-talented pianist, with a superb understanding of group interplay which results in a very original and virtuosic approach. He is also a fine vibraphonist, and is at ease with that instrument as he always has been with the piano.

Friday 12th January

Not Strictly Jazz Quartet

Led by bassist Delano Mills the quartet perform a mix of funk and fusion along with a little reggae and jazz influence. Performing material from the masters of the genre such as Grover Washington Jnr and Bob Marley and The Wailers.

Friday 9th February

Sarah Barnwell and James Hickman Duo

Violinist Sarah Barnwell joins forces with guitarist and vocalist James Hickman to offer classics and standards in a seamless blend of vintage swing, gypsy jazz, folk and blues.
